

METRO TABERNACLE CHURCH
DESTINY ACADEMY
EDUCATING WITH PURPOSE . LEADING WITH FAITH

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Is Destiny Academy a homeschool or a private school? We are a Category IV Church-related umbrella school. We will have classes Monday - Thursday at the Metro Tab Church campus with teachers, administration, and students in-person. On Fridays, students will have an asynchronous (at home) learning day.

What time does it end and start? Start time is 9:00AM (drop-off begins at 8:45AM) and end time is 3:30PM (pick-up ends at 3:45PM). Every Thursday afternoon will be Chapel Service for all students. Families welcome and encouraged to join!

Is childcare available? Before and after school care is not available at this time.

Will services for students with special needs be available? Services for students with special needs such as IEP, 504, ESOL, Gifted, or ExEd is not available at this time.

Will lunch be provided? Students will bring their own water bottles, lunches, and snacks to school with them. At this time, Destiny Academy does not provide breakfast or lunch.

Will students be required to wear a uniform? The Destiny Academy dress code will include required school-logo shirts/hoodies/polos. Khaki shorts, pants, jeans (without holes or rips), approximately 3 inches above the knee or longer. Tennis / sneakers only. Heely® or other rolling shoes are not permitted.

What core curriculum is being used at the Academy? All grade levels will use ABeka curriculum.

What Bible curriculum is being used at the Academy? All grade levels will use ABeka curriculum.

Need more homeschool information? Click the link below to visit the HCDE Office of Equity and Advocacy webpage for homeschooling. Homeschool - Hamilton County Schools \(hcde.org\)